Dear Senior Law Professional, (I am trying to communicate with multiple Senior Law Professionals)

Canadian Government may be running a program of vigorously (criminally) harassing individual with different political ideology (Pages 3). Unfortunately my name (Gana Kiritharan) also may ends up in such a list. As a result I experienced various form of vigorous (criminal) harassment in Canada. I would like ask your service to protect me and other similar victims from above politically motivated vigorously harassing program. Following are the details of Vigorous harassment I experienced in Canada which I have documented in a one or other way of formal manner.

1) Fraud, Fraudulent Concealment, Theft of My Royalty Money and Subsequent Obstruction to Justice.

(Pages 4 – 12)

Date of Incident: May have started in 1999 (Year I came to Canada) Incident may still Continue.

Canadian Government may have facilitated a group of Canadian residents to set up bank accounts in my name in Canadian banks fraudulently. Then with the help of an international criminal organization, royalty money belong to me came from various communities got diverted into these accounts. Then the money may get spent by above group of Canadian residents as they wished. Evidence for existence of such account came to light in year 2005. When I defaulted my various loan accounts with Canadian banks, they got paid from above illegally managed account while I was visiting India and Sri Lanka.

Based on above mention evidence in year 2007 I made complaint to civil and criminal sections of Ontario Judiciary against a Canadian bank; TD Canada Trust. But I failed to receive justice in this issue. TD Bank, it lawyers and members of Ontario and Canada Judiciary may have created obstruction to Justice in this issue. (Civil Case Court File No: 07 – CV – 341987PD 2, ONTARIO, SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE, CIVIL 393 University Ave. Criminal Complaint Toronto Police Services, Fraud Complaint, Number # 2529262.)

2) Fake Criminal conviction. (Pages 13 – 22)

Date of Incident: May have happened in 2006 June – September period, I got formal information of existence of such criminal record in my personal file in 24 September 2019.

In order to facilitate withdrawal of a large amount of money from above mentioned fraudulently set up accounts and to create a defamation record in my personal life, Toronto Police Services may have created a fake criminal conviction with the help of stolen Identity. I have sent a letter to Toronto Police Chief Mr. Mark Saunders and other necessary legal departments in Ontario and Canada, about this issue on 2nd of December 2019 but failed to receive any response. Then I reported the issue to Canadian Human Rights Commission and Office of Independent Police Review Director (Ontario). They also failed to provide any solution for the issue.

3) Poisoning my food and living space with Toxic Metals with criminal intention. (Pages 23 – 24)

Date of Incident: May have stated while I was in Sri Lanka in year 1994 – first I realized the issue in May 2010 in Toronto. The issue may continue until now.

Food and living environment of Tamil community is being poisoned with various forms of toxins by various sovereign governments; including Canadian government; with genocide intention. Canadian government and its security services with the help of members of Ontario Judiciary poisoned my food and living environment with toxic metals. In some instances my house mates utilized to administer this poison to my food. I experienced various health problems as a result of these poisoning attempts. When Ontario Health care system failed to make correct diagnosis and provide proper treatment, I took personal effects to get proper diagnosis and proper treatment. As a result I was able to avoid serious damages to my health. Even though I avoided serious damages to my health, some of my room mates have experienced serious damages to their health.

I also started a private scientific study to understand relationship between toxic metals and my health problems (I got educated in Medical Profession in Sri Lanka) As the result of this scientific study I discovered a new and correct explanation for Type 2 Diabetic Mellitus a disease which not only affects me but another 400 million people around the world. Even though I made several attempts to communicate about my explanation with medical professionals locally and internationally, I failed to receive any professional recognition for my work.

4) Interferences into mail, telephone and email communications. (Pages 25)

Date of Incident: First realized around 2001 – 2002 period, may still continues.

During 2001 - 2002 periods, when I tried to sign a publishing contract with India publishers, first time I realized my mails are being misappropriated in Canada. First publishing contract send by my publishers around 2001 December - 2002 January period may got misappropriated. The second copy send by my publishers also got delayed by one month. I believe several of my business and personal communication got misappropriated before and after this incident.

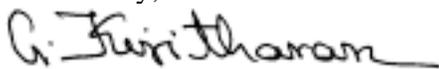

Serious interference into his telephone communication may have happened around April – May 2007 period. When I applied for renewal of my security guard license on April 2007 through my new employer, Magnum Protective Services, the application got returned saying telephone number given on application form 416 820 8581 is wrong. When my employer (Mr. Ben. H. Lee) and me checked and confirmed there is no mistake in the phone number provided and send back the application for renewal of security guard license without making any change, my license got renewed. The purpose of diverting my phone calls may be for obtain a fake pardon for the fake criminal conviction mentioned above.

In the civil case I filed against Canadian bank, when bank informed court that in July 2007 bank has sent a letter to me which I failed to receive, I tried to make a police complaint regarding this issue. But Toronto Police Services may fail to investigate the complaint.

Gana Kiritharan's questions to senior law professionals as follows:

1. Whether Gana Kiritharan can continuously expect his problem gets solved inside Canadian judicial system or he should escalate the issue some international legal system like UN Human right commission or International Criminal Court. (Please note Gana Kiritharan may not be the only victim of this issue.)
2. Whether Gana Kiritharan can continue to expect Canada as his country of residence or move to a country which is friendlier to Gana Kiritharan's political Ideology.
3. Despite Gana Kiritharan's ability make hundreds of thousands of dollars as annual royalty by his intellectual works, because of theft by above criminal conspiracy; Gana Kiritharan has to work as Security Guard and other odd jobs to make up his living in Canada. If Canadian Judiciary fail to return money stolen by above criminal conspiracy to Gana Kiritharan within one or two months, Gana Kiritharan may have to default his Canadian bank loans for second time in his Canadian financial history.

Yours truly,

Gana Kiritharan.

Ex-CSIS boss says Canadians have an 'Alice in Wonderland' worldview in leaked cable

Evidence Canadian Government Vigorously □
Harassing people with different political Ideology.

Sports Nov 30, 2010 Waterloo Region Record

OTTAWA — The former head of the Canadian Security Intelligence Service confided the spy agency was "vigorously harassing" known Hezbollah members in Canada, a newly disclosed diplomatic note reveals.

Jim Judd, then CSIS director, also lamented that a soon-to-be released video of young Omar Khadr's interrogation at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, would trigger "knee-jerk anti-Americanism" and "paroxysms of moral outrage, a Canadian specialty," says the July 2008 cable from the U.S. Embassy in Ottawa.

Though "very worried" about Iran, the spy service secured a promise from the Iranian intelligence ministry to "help" on Afghan issues, including information about potential attacks, adds the note, obtained by online whistleblower WikiLeaks and posted Monday by the New York Times.

WikiLeaks confirms there will be as many as 2,648 documents mentioning Canada among the quarter-million it plans to release in coming days.

Story continues below▼

The cable disclosed Monday, classified secret, recounts a July 2, 2008, meeting in Ottawa between Judd and State Department official Eliot Cohen.

It clearly conveys the former CSIS director's frustration with legal requirements that made the spy agency's efforts to combat terrorism more trying.

"Director Judd ascribed an 'Alice in Wonderland' worldview to Canadians and their courts, whose judges have tied CSIS 'in knots,' making it ever more difficult to detect and prevent terror attacks in Canada and abroad," the cable says.

"The situation, he commented, left government security agencies on the defensive and losing public support for their effort to protect Canada and its allies."

Judd, who retired from CSIS last year, did not immediately return a phone message Monday.

According to the document, Judd "derided" recent Canadian court rulings that threatened to undermine foreign government information-sharing with Canada.

Story continues below▼

"These judgments posit that Canadian authorities cannot use information that 'may have been' derived from torture, and that any Canadian public official who conveys such information may be subject to criminal prosecution," the cable says.

"This, he commented, put the government in a reverse-onus situation whereby it would have to 'prove' the innocence of partner nations in the face of assumed wrongdoing."

CSIS had responded to intelligence rumblings on possible terror operations by "vigorously harassing" known members of Hezbollah, a group which Canada lists as a terrorist organization. There was no explanation of what those tactics might have been.

But Judd noted that such members and their lawyers were considering new "avenues of litigation" opened by recent court rulings that had inappropriately treated intelligence bodies like police agencies.

The spy service has made it known in recent years that the demands of the courts have spawned a growing battery of lawyers at CSIS headquarters.

Judd correctly predicted the court-ordered release of the video of the tearful, Toronto-born Khadr being questioned at Guantanamo would lead to heightened pressure on the Tories to press for his return to Canada, which the government would continue to resist.

On Pakistan, Judd said "it is hard to see a good outcome there," due to the country's political, economic and security failures, as well as fast-rising oil and food prices, according to the note.

Judd also took a dim view of progress in Afghanistan, the cable says, due in part to President Hamid Karzai's "weak leadership, widespread corruption, the lack of will to press ahead on counter-narcotics," and limited Afghan security and policing.

In addition, Judd indicated Taliban leaders in Pakistan were behind a spectacular mass escape of hundreds of inmates from the Sarpoza prison in Kandahar City. "He commented that CSIS had seen Sarpoza coming, and its link to the Quetta Shura in Pakistan, but could not get a handle on the timing," the note says.

Judd told Cohen that he and his colleagues are "very, very worried" about Iran, the cable adds.

"CSIS recently talked to Iran's Ministry of Intelligence and Security (MOIS) after that agency requested its own channel of communication to Canada, he said. The Iranians agreed to 'help' on Afghan issues, including sharing information regarding potential attacks."

SYNOPSIS

On Wednesday December 12, 2007 at 1036 hours the complainant (Gana KIRITHARAN) attended Toronto Police service, 242 Milner Avenue, 42 Division and reported that he was a victim of a fraud.

Gana advised police that in March 2005 he owed the Toronto Dominion Bank (TD) approximately $11,000.00. In march of the same year, he stopped the monthly payments to his accounts before leaving Canada for India.

He returned to Canada in May 2006 and requested a personal credit history for TD Bank. The credit check stated that he had a zero balance for his TD Line of Credit account and that the account was "closed consumer's request; Line of Credit." Gana stated that he did not pay the $11,000.00 nor did he close the account.

Gana advised police that an unknown person opened a second unknown chequing account with the Toronto Dominion Bank in his name. He further stated that royalty cheques from his book were deposited into this account and that TD bank used this money to pay for his line of credit. Gana stated that he contacted TD bank but they have denied the existence of this second chequing account and have requested that he pay the outstanding balance on his account.

CLAIM

1. The plaintiff (Gana Kiritharan) claims from Defendant (TD Canada Trust) following details for each account managed under his name in the bank, for which he is entitled in Canadian Bill of Rights and Law of Canada.

Details he claims for each account as follows:

1. Name or Type of the Account.
2. Number of the Account.
3. When Account was opened?
4. When Account was closed?
5. Why account was closed?
6. How account was balanced (made 0.00) at closure?

Duration of Details being claimed:

From: Earliest date possible according to TD Canada Trust record management policy respecting appropriate section of Canadian Banking Act and Canadian Regulations.

Till: To the latest date accounts were managed under Gana Kiritharan's name.

According to the detail being provided Gana Kiritharan may claim for more detail of each account for specific period of time

Reasons for the Claim:

2. During November 2004 – March 2005 period, when plaintiff visited TD Canada Trust branches in Scarborough area for regular banking transactions tellers tried to print some additional information in a separate sheet and attach it to the sheet plaintiff supposed to sign for his regular banking. Some times this additional information got printed on the back of the transaction sheet plaintiff supposed to sign. Though plaintiff tried to have a look into this additional information, banking staff prevented him from doing so. This leads to a question whether bank has some financial information of Gana Kiritharan's financial life which was not disclosed to him. (Document 1 Civil.)

3. Also, due to some unexpected financial situation, plaintiff stopped monthly payment for his line credit with TD Canada Trust around March 2005. But when plaintiff took a credit report in August 2006 his line of credit is reported as follows (Balance 0.00, Closed Consumer's Request.):

Reported	Opened	Last Activity	High Credit	Balance	Past Due Amount	Terms	Account Type/Current Payment	Payment History
TORONTO DOMINION BANK
Oct 01, 2005	May 2002	Oct 2005	11,000	0	0	346/Month R5 REVOLVING AT LEAST 120 DAYS OVERDUE	1 1	5 42
Comments: CLOSED CONSUMER'S REQUEST, LINE OF CREDIT

It is being reported without any change as above on repeated TransUnion Credit Reports until now. When Gana Kiritharan inquired TransUnion for the accuracy of the way being reported they did not make any change the way it is being reported.

Also, according to information collected from TD Canada Trust, there were transactions in Gana Kiritharan's Line of Credit is September - October 2005 as follows.

Date	Trans Description	Trans Amount	Balance
09/30/2005	Interest	82.01 DR	11,561.83-
10/19/2005	Interest	49.89 DR
10/19/2005	Collection Item	11,611.72 CR
10/19/2005	Close Account	0.00 DR	0.00

According to some experienced people above recording represent TD Bank made a appropriation from funds belong to Gana Kiritharan and closed his account. But according to Gana Kiritharan's personal financial information he did not have 11,611.72 Dollars in Canada on October 19th 2005. This leads to a question, whether TD Canada Trust has some concealed money belong to Gana Kiritharan or at least has some information regarding concealed money belong to him. (Document 2 Civil.)

4. Plaintiff has sent 3 inquiry letters to TD Canada Trust regarding his concern between 12 March 2007 and 12 July 2007. Bank not only failed to address his concerns fairly, but gave him a confusing reply, by saying he is still has to pay for his line of credit for full amount. This reply contradicts the way his line of credit being reported in his credit report. Again, plaintiff hired services of CB Associate & Consultancy to correspond regarding his line of credit with TD Canada Trust between 7th September 2007 and 16th October 2007. They also failed to give any clear explanation for Gana Kiritharan. (Document 3 Civil.)

In Gana Kiritharan's civil complaint, the Bank obtained above court order by misleading the court and creating obstruction to Justice. But initially bank failed to make any action based on above court order. When Gana Kiritharan continued to make public allegations about the criminal conspiracy against him, after 4 years of (from 2013) court order bank started to make garnishment from Gana Kiritharan's Security Guard work earning. By 2018 bank took 19,790.15 and it stopped when Gana Kiritharan stopped working with one company and switched to another company.

Dear: Mr. Kiritharan,

Re: Vulnerable Sector Fingerprint Requirement

This is the Letter Gana Kiritharan received from Toronto Police Service regarding similarity between him and a sex offender in Canada. When looked superficially it appears just a verifying process. But Gana Kiritharan came to the conclusion that he is a victim of "Fake Criminal Conviction" for reasons explained in following pages.

We are in receipt of your Vulnerable Sector Screening application. Before we can continue processing your background screening, the RCMP requires the submission of your fingerprints due to the match of your gender and date of birth to their pardoned sex offender registry.

You must attend Toronto Police Service Headquarters – 40 College Street, to complete this requirement. Private fingerprinting agencies are not authorized to perform this service.

How to schedule a Vulnerable Sector Fingerprint appointment:

- Contact the Fingerprint Coordinator at (416) 808-8224 and leave a voice message, or
- Email referencecheckprogram@torontopolice.on.ca and advise your availability.
- Monday to Thursday 7am to 2:20pm, Friday 7am to 11:40am. Appointments are every 20 minutes

This service is by appointment only. Please ensure your appointment is scheduled within 6 months from the date of this letter.

Vulnerable Sector Fingerprint Fee:

- The fee for this service is $25.00 mandated by the RCMP.
- Methods of payment include: Credit/Debit card, Money Order or Certified Cheque made payable to the Toronto Police Service.
- Cash will not be accepted.
- Fee exemption applies to volunteer applications only. Bring correspondence from your organization indicating you are being placed in a bona-fide volunteer position. The correspondence must be signed and on the organization's letterhead.

Please bring the following to your appointment:

- 1 piece of Government issued photo identification with your name and date of birth (example: Driver's Licence, Passport, Citizenship document).
- Your form of payment in the amount of $25.00

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours truly,

Gana Kiritharan returned to Canada on end of May 2006. After finding a new place to live, he went and changed his address of Health Card and Drivers License around early June 2006 at Public Service Machine at Scarborough Town Center. He received his new health card on time but failed to receive his Drivers License. After one month he went to the Testing center at Sheppard and Morning side and inquired about it. The person assisted informed Gana Kiritharan the new card should be on the way. But Gana Kiritharan failed to receive anything. After another month on 4th August 2006, Gana Kiritharan visited the Ministry of Transportation at Sheppard and Mac Cowan and inquired about it. The person after checking, Informed Gana Kiritharan that he failed to change the mailing address that is the reason for the failure to receive the Drivers License. Then the person assisted issued a temporary drivers license but requested and received the receipt for the address change in June. The receipt had a blank space for the mailing address.

Gana Kiritharan's ID went missing for few months after a routing address change in 2006. The stolen or misplaced
ID may have been used to create a fake criminal conviction.

Motive of crime may be misappropriation of money. If you look at the credit report here, all the accounts are either paid and closed on consumer request or written off when consumer default the loan. But the first loan listed "TORONTO DOMINION BANK VISA" BAD DEBT PLACED FOR COLLECTION, but not Written Off. The reason may be an unknown amount of money in the custody of bank continued to give protection for the VISA loan so it can not be written off.

DATE: 19th February 2010.

Gana Kiritharan,
307 – 10 Stonehill Court,
Scarborough, Ontario
Tel: 416-820-8581

TO: Canadian Judicial Council,
Ontario Judicial Council,

Dear Sir / Madam,

Re: Claim of Serious Ethical Failures in Kiritharan vs TD Canada Trust (07 – CV – 341987PD 2)

I Gana Kiritharan one party in above mentioned Civil Case, filed in Toronto Court house of Ontario Civil Court (also victim in Toronto Police Services Fraud Complains # 2529262). I would like to bring your kind attention of incidents happened during my Civil Case (also experience incurred during criminal complaint) which I claim as confusion in our law and serious ethical failure in our Judiciary which eventually lead above issue to present status, which I would claim as miscarriage of justice.

Though for the complaints 3, 4, 5 and 6, appeal may considered as more appropriate, I chose not to do so for following reasons.

- a. I do not have enough money to continue this civil proceeding.
- b. I found extremely difficult to obtain necessary legal advice. (Please find letter to Upper Canada Law Society.)
- c. Ontario Judiciary has necessarily or unnecessarily created a question that when there is evidence to suspect a commission of crime in a bank or by a bank; whether it is responsibility of criminal section or civil section to investigate and bring justice to the victims. I believe finding an answer for this question beyond my resources and responsibility. I am calling for a public enquiry to find answer to this question.

Details of my Complaint as Follows:

1. Communication between TD Canada Trust lawyer and Superior Court Master in absence other party, unprofessional treatment by superior court registers. (? spread of illegally obtained psychiatric diagnosis regarding plaintiff between law professionals.)

Complaint against: Master Jane Egan – Ontario Superior Court – Toronto Court House.
Register Salma Bapoo – Ontario Superior Court – Toronto Court House.
393 University Ave.

On the day on first telephone case conference (February 20th, 2008) around 9.00 AM, I contacted TD Canada Trust lawyer to confirm that I was available in my phone line. Then I got informed by TD Canada Trust Lawyer Ms. Susan Rai that she just talked to Master Egan and as she informed she will call me for a telephone conference in few minutes. As I did not take the incident seriously I did not inquire about the detail of such communication.

Later around April 2008 when I went to the masters' office to know about the procedure of entering a court order Master Egan's register Salma Bapoo may have treated me in an unprofessional manner. She may have requested another register to stand behind her and watch me all the time while I was talking to register Salma Bapoo.

I also experienced similar unprofessional treatment by other registers when I went to the 10th floor of Toronto Court Office to file documents in this case.

Around July 2008 I came to know I was diagnosed with “Delusional Disorder of Persecutory Type” by Canadian Psychiatrist and I made this diagnosis public when I received it. Any Psychiatric diagnosis received by legal professional before July 2008 may obtained illegally and I feel even above diagnosis is a mistake and any treatment based on such diagnosis came as unnecessary harassment for me.

2. Unnecessary delay of Court Order and Improper way of amending it.

Complaint against: Master Birnbaum – Ontario Superior Court – Toronto Court House.
393 University Ave.

At the end of the Motion on November 12th, 2008, I was informed by Master Birnbaum that she will issue her court order in writing. As I failed to receive any court order after one week I went to the Masters’ office of Toronto court office and inquired register Gbemi Kester (Master Birnbaum’s register) whether the court order had been sent to me. She informed the court order is not ready yet and failed to give any reason for it or inform me when it will be released. Again as I failed to receive after another two weeks I went back to Master’s office and inquired the reason for the delay. Then register Gbemi Kester informed me she do not know the exact reason for the delay and informed me master can take up to 3 months to issue the court order. Though I contacted few more time I received similar answers.

Finally I received the court order around January 20th, 2009, that is 2 months and one week after the motion date. When going through the court order I found in page 2 of the order word plaintiff was mistakenly used in two places where the word defendant supposed to come. When I brought it to the attention of the masters’ office I received a amended court order around February 17th, 2009 (3 months and 5 days after motion date) and found that it is signed using the date January 19, 2009 or court officials just inserted the previously signed 3rd page of court order after amended page 1 and 2 (Tap 7, Page 143 – 150).

I also found that defendant lawyers claim of hours for time for November 12th, 2008 motion increased by 6.2 hours after completion of motion. If the reason for this is not negligent, then the costing details may be prepared fraudulently or defendant lawyer may have spend 6.2 hours discussing the issue with somebody after completion of the motion. (Tab 9 Pages 171 & 176)

3. Contradicting Court Orders. (Tab 7 – Pages 149 – 150)

Complaint against: Master Birnbaum – Ontario Superior Court – Toronto Court House.
393 University Ave.

At the motion on November 12th, 2008, I requested the court to order that there is enough evidence to suspect that there was a commission of crime in accounts managed under the name of Plaintiff (Gana Kiritharan or Kiritharan Kanagalingam) in Defendant bank (TD Canada Trust).

When responding to this request Master Birnbaum in her order (paragraph 5.1) said that “There is no relief this court can find or grant on this motion today. This is civil, not a criminal, court.”

But when analyzing the possible worst case scenario Master Birnbaum in same order (paragraph 5.4.vi and v) said that “There is an air of unreality in the suggestion that Mr. Kiritharan’s publishers, who are in India, would deposit money to a secret account in his name without any evidence that he directed them to send the money to TD Canada Trust or how they would know where he banks in Canada. No response is needed to these questions: ...”

To: Mark Saunders,
Chief of Police, Toronto Police Services,
40 College Street, Toronto ON M5G 2J3.

Gana Kiritharan send following letter explaining his suspicion but failed to receive any response from any body.

Requesting Details of Criminal Conviction File (File Number and Court House Location of the File).

Tab 1: Your Letter;

I, Gana Kiritharan, recently I applied for Toronto Police Services for Vulnerable Sector Screening Reference Check as an educational and training requirement. A letter received from Toronto Police Services dated September 24, 2019 informing me “RCMP requires the submission of your fingerprints due to the match of your gender and date of birth to their pardoned sex offender registry.” As I was not convicted any criminal offence in any part of the world this statement arise a question whether I was a victim of fake criminal conviction with a help of stolen Identity of mine.

Tab 2: Stolen Identity;

When I returned to Canada in May 2006 after a trip to India and Sri Lanka on June 2006 I went and changed my address at Ontario Service Kiosk at Scarborough Town Center for my Health Card and Ontario Driver’s License. I received the health card on time but failed to receive the driver’s license on time. I received addresses changed drivers license after 2nd attempt to change it and only in August or September 2006. I afraid a misplaced or stolen Driver’s License may have been used create a fake criminal record against me.

Tab 3: Financial Motive.

Motive for such crime may be misappropriation of funds belong to me through illegally managed accounts in Canadian Banks. I made complaint against Canadian Bank; TD Canada Trust in 2007 for existence of such account to criminal and civil sections of Ontario judiciary, but failed to receive justice in that issue.

My Request to Criminal Conviction file:

At this juncture I would like to request you to provide me more information regarding the criminal conviction (File Number and Court House Location of the file) behind the your statement “RCMP requires the submission of your fingerprints due to the match of your gender and date of birth to their pardoned sex offender registry.” As I may be a victim of very complex criminal conspiracy, if appropriate I would like to request employees of Ontario Judiciary to make a copy of such file and hand it over to me in a proper manner. Also like to ask Ontario and Canada Judiciary to take proper legal action against people responsible for creation of such fake criminal conviction.

Yours truly,

G Kiritharan.

Mr. Gana Kiritharan

Gana Kiritharan made this complaint to Office of the Independent Police Review Director (Ontario) on 10 Feb. 2020 and received response as follow:

Dear Mr. Kiritharan:

Re: Public Complaint: Toronto Police Service
OIPRD Complaint Number: E-202002100953486349

The Office of the Independent Police Review Director (OIPRD) has reviewed your complaint and determined it to be a service complaint involving the Toronto Police Service.

In your complaint you indicate that you believe the Toronto Police Service may have made a “fake criminal conviction” against you as part of a “Vigorously Harassing program of Canadian Government of people with Ideological differences.” You indicate that an incident may have happened around June 2006 in which you state that your identity was stolen. In September 2019, you obtained a vulnerable sector reference check through the Toronto Police Service as an “educational and training requirement.” You received a letter on September 24, 2019 from Toronto Police Service advising you that the RCMP requires submission of your fingerprints due to the match of your gender and date of birth to their pardoned sex offender registry. You state that as you were not convicted with any criminal offence and therefore this made you question whether you were a victim of a fake criminal conviction.

On December 2, 2019, you sent a letter to Chief Saunders informing him of this suspicion and you also requested more details about the criminal conviction file that led the Toronto Police Service to advise you that the RCMP required your fingerprints. You state that you did not receive a response to your letter. Additionally, you also believe that the Toronto Police Service has participated in other incidents against you.

Section 60(4) of the Police Services Act permits the Independent Police Review Director not to deal with a complaint if, in his opinion, having regard to all of the circumstances, dealing with the complaint is not in the public interest.

We appreciate that you filed a complaint as a result of information that you received through the Vulnerable Sector Screening Check and that you are requesting access to information pertaining to this matter. However, the more appropriate forum for you to request the information you seek is through the Toronto Police Service's Access and Privacy Section. You may wish to contact the Access and Privacy Section directly to find out whether the information you would like access to can be provided to you. Further, with regard to your complaint and the issues you raised, your complaint that the Toronto Police Service has participated in incidents against you and that they created a fake criminal conviction against you as part of a "Vigorously Harassing program of Canadian Government of people with Ideological differences" is speculative in nature and there is no substantive basis within your complaint to support this claim. There is also no information within your complaint that suggests that the Toronto Police Service engaged in police misconduct through their response stemming from your Vulnerable Sector Screening Check. It appears that the Toronto Police Service advised you of the RCMP's request that you submit your fingerprints as a result of the information obtained through the records check. For these reasons, the Director has determined that it would not be in the public interest to investigate your complaint.

Please be advised that the Police Services Act, our governing legislation, does not provide for an appeal from the classification and screening of complaints conducted by the OIPRD. Accordingly, our file is now closed. The only means of appeal for this decision is a judicial review in the Superior Court of Justice. Information about the judicial review process is attached for your information.

A copy of your complaint as well as our decision not to proceed has been forwarded to the Chief of the Toronto Police Service for his record.

To find out more about OIPRD and the Police Services Act, please visit our website at www.oiprd.on.ca.

Sincerely,
On behalf of the Independent Police Review Director

Gana Kiritharan also made complaint to Canadian Human Rights Commission on 10 Feb. 2020 and received response as follow:

Dear Gana Kiritharan:

This is further to your correspondence of February 10, to the Canadian Human Rights Commission (the Commission) concerning various criminal activities.

The Commission was established under the Canadian Human Rights Act (the Act) to address allegations of discrimination by federally regulated employers and service providers.

You can find an explanation of the Commission's mandate on our website in "Your Guide to Understanding the Canadian Human Rights Act."

In order for the Commission to accept a complaint there must be a direct link between the alleged discriminatory act and one or more of the grounds of discrimination in the Act. The grounds of discrimination are as follows:

- o race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, family status, disability, genetic characteristics and conviction for which a pardon has been granted.

Following a careful analysis of your recent correspondence, it does not appear that your situation is something that can be dealt with under the Act. It is important to note that, although you may feel that you have been treated unfairly, unless that treatment is related to a ground of discrimination under the Act, it would not show discrimination under our Act.

We have carefully reviewed your correspondence, and it does not appear that the issues you raise are linked to a ground in the Act. As a result, the Commission is not the appropriate organization to deal with this matter.

Furthermore, please keep in mind that complaints must be filed within 12 months of the last instance of discrimination. We thought it was important to remind you of this as your correspondence mentions events dating back to the year 1994.

If, after reviewing the above information, you have any questions or wish to discuss this further, please call us toll-free at the number below.

Yours sincerely,

Gana Kiritharan's Explanation Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus. [T2DM].

Gana Kiritharan is bringing forward a new explanation of T2DM, a disease that affects more than 400 million worldwide. Whilst the current explanation outlines that the increased consumption of high energy food, an increased adoption of a sedentary lifestyle, and the knock on effects of urbanization as causative factors of T2DM, he argues that toxic metals, other toxins, and other factors that go on to cause insulin resistance are the main causes of T2DM. Whilst the present explanation states that an elevated blood sugar level is caused by a cell's failure to take up sugar from the blood and that an elevated blood sugar causes damage to internal organs, he argues that an elevated blood sugar level in T2DM is as a result of the breakdown of proteins and that this elevated sugar is protective to internal organs by improving the sugar supply to tissues by simple diffusion.

Whilst the present explanation justifies the use insulin in T2DM to reduce highly elevated and sustained blood sugar levels, he argues that doing so would increase the destruction of proteins in the body and will go on to limit the glucose supply to internal organs which would go on to lead to renal and other end-organ failure in T2DM. He also explains how through detoxing the body and maintaining an adequate glucose supply throughout the day, renal failure can be prevented in T2DM.

Furthermore his explanation states that in a T2DM patient, the first event to occur is the development of a resistance to insulin. After a resistance to insulin has been developed, a glucose deficiency inside cells occurs. This glucose deficiency pushes cells into the metabolic stage of chronic starvation. However, starvation due to insulin resistance differs from starvation due to malnourishment. In starvation due to malnourishment, blood glucose and insulin levels decrease and goes on to cause lipolysis of adipose tissue which leads to an energy in the absence of adequate nutrition. In insulin resistance, as blood glucose and insulin levels do not decrease, lipolysis does not occur. This leads to the breakdown of protein due to the catabolism of muscle cells. The catabolism of muscle cells not only supplies glucose for muscle cells, but also for nerve cells, red cells, and kidney tissue as well.

Gana Kiritharan through a case study conducted on his own body explains how metformin, the commonly used oral hypoglycemic medication, works by removing Arsenic-like toxic metals. For more details regarding the intellectual works of Gana Kiritharan's explanation to T2DM, please visit his website at <http://www.gkiri.ca>

Gana Kiritharan initiated a private scientific study in 2010 to understand relationship between  Toxic Metals and Type 2 Diabetic Mellitus. As the result of study he end up in new (correct)  explanation for the Disease. After overcoming several challenges in 2017 December he put  forward his conclusion as an article format. He so far communicated with several medical  professionals and institutions regarding his new explanation but failed to receive any professional recognition. Then he tried to publish his article in British Medical Journal and Journal for American Medical Association. When they refused to publish his full article, he asked the Journals to publish above 1 page summary as paid advertisement. Gana Kiritharan failed to receive any response.
